Old Business:

Trail Report:

- Steve Bailey smoothed out the trail off Lost Lake Road towards Hummer
- Jack Andraschko, Harlan Girtz, and Dan Wierschke checked the trails prior to opening day to make sure there was no downed trees or brush
- A salt spreader was purchased for $200.00 to be used to spread salt in front of residences on Lost Lake Road and Pickerel Creek Road. Salt is used to keep the road dust down.

WATVA Annual Meeting

- Hummer attended:
 - o Trail Com is an organization to gain awareness of different trail systems in the state.
 - o The White Lake to Lily trail was discussed, it will cost about $100,000 to re-route the trail to stay away from the section of railroad right of way where the fish hatchery is located.
 - o Hummer provided a variety of pamphlets he picked up.

Spring Clean up - right after today's meeting

Safety Training - will be held on Saturday and Sunday of Memorial day weekend.

- It was mentioned that because Sherri Mijal was such an active part of the training class, the club issue a scholarship for one of the participants. The scholarship could be a drawing at the class, and the participant's fees are returned. It is too soon to do something this year, the club agreed it should be discussed for the 2014 class.

How the County spends ATV monies - tabled until June Meeting

New Business:

New trails

- Need to get more voices to talk to elected officials at the county and state level.
- People are leaving Langlade County to ATV in other area
- Parrish Highlands club president along with Jack and Hummer are working with members of Mole Lake to get a trail connected to Mole Lake
 - o Proposing to opening County trunk M off of County Trunk Z
 - o Russ from P/H will meet with the Oneida Hwy Commission to work out the details.
 - o Jack made a proposal that our club along with the Parrish Highland Club be responsible for that route in the event that Mole Lake can't meet their commitment. Those costs would be for signage, and damages that might occur if ATV's disregard signage to stay on the blacktop.
 - o Dan Wierschke motioned to accept Jack's proposal, Hummer seconded the motion, all approved and the motion carried
